

Welcome to San Jose .. and who brought the rain?

The San Jose Sports Authority invite you to join us for an “Open House” dinner.

Monday, February 19 from 5:00 – 8:00 pm
San Jose Sports Authority Office
San Jose Convention Center directly across from the Hilton

As event professionals, when you bring an event to your town, that’s when the rain will arrive and unfortunately the rain is now throughout the evening on Monday. As much as I was looking forward to testing your pizza making skills and the Sports ETA Bocce Championship at my home ... as we do better than any industry ... we will pivot!

We are happy to host the “un-official” welcome dinner in our office. The San Jose Sports Authority is in the convention center on the opposite side of the Marriott. Enter the convention center through the Marriott and walk to the other end toward the Hilton. Our office is located directly across from the Hilton. No shuttle vans, umbrella or jackets needed ...it’s all indoors so just bring an appetite.
